Remuneration will be discussed in an interview with a successful application post COVID-19 restrictions

To be considered, all applications must be put in writing to secretary@windsorroyals.com.au

Please include:

- Your playing/coaching History
- History/Relationship with

Windsor (If Any)

- Why you think you are a good fit
- What your personal goals for the club would be as a Head Coach

For any questions please call 0401508925

Knightly steps down as Head Coach

Knight protects legacy of the Royals

Just as the title suggests, Jamie Knight has done a valiant job proving that as always, the Knight family tradition with the Windsor Royals remains as strong as ever. Royals blood pumps through his veins and we have been blessed with his involvement.

Unfortunately, he has stepped down as the Head Coach this year and we now have the tough job of finding a replacement. We at the club are so incredibly thankful of the hard work that Jamie has put into the club over not only the last couple of years as the Div 1 coach, but throughout his entire lifetime.

His accolades and achievements are hard to match with the cherry on top being the 2019 Div 1 premiership trophy.

Some accolades for the Windsor Royals
